There is no need to submit a written paper as the basis for your talk or presentation.

For the congress program, the scientific committee has identified a list of topics with corresponding subtopics. Apart from section-specific topics, it also includes joint sessions covering cross-section topics.

The ICA 2018 program also features several award sessions. Applications for the ICA 2018 Best Paper Awards as well as the IAA Section Best Paper Awards can be made via the regular submission procedure. While the ICA 2018 Best Paper Awards honor innovative research results in six subject areas, the IAA Section Best Paper Awards will be granted for outstanding results in each section area.
